次の英文は、インドネシアに住んでいるナディラ (Nadira) さんが、インターネットの掲示板に投稿した文章の一部である。これを読んで、ナディラさんの質問に対するあなたの答えを英語で簡潔に書きなさい。

Hi, I'm Nadira. I'm a university student in Indonesia, and I study traditional music. I love Japanese traditional music, so I'm planning to study in Tokyo next year.

I take Japanese classes at my university twice a week, but I feel that just taking classes is not enough to get better. Speaking and listening are still very hard for me. I really need to improve my Japanese skills before I go to Japan.

What can I do? Do you have any advice?

You should try listening to Japanese music. You can improve your listening skills and learn many new words.

You can talk with me online. I'm interested in Indonesia, so I want to talk with you. Let's practice Japanese together.

I think you can make Japanese friends who love music on the internet. Talking with friends about things you like is a fun way to practice Japanese.
